Purchase this successful meal delivery business and find your financial freedom today.

Established over sixteen years, this successful business provides customers with convenient, pre-made, and nutritionally balanced meals delivered straight to their door.

The brand is well-known and trusted by all of the major Allied Health Providers and receives weekly referrals through them, offering joint clients the ability to charge up to 70% of the meal costs to their Home Care Packages. Sales leads are also generated from the health sector and converted by the team into delivery orders, this ever-growing business is adding new customers every week.

Delivering meals to predominantly senior customers throughout the Sunshine Coast, Bribie Island and the more Northern suburbs of Brisbane, from a large commercial kitchen and retail outlet located in a thriving Hinterland town. The large, loyal customer base enjoys the extensive and delicious menu range either weekly, fortnightly or on an as-needed basis.

The location is central to the delivery area with convenient parking and several large retail stores close by, making it an easy find for customers who wish to purchase meals over the counter.

This is a profitable and growing business with a team of reliable, knowledgeable and loyal staff, known for excellent customer service, quality products and great value. The new owner will receive everything needed to hit the ground running and earn income from day one.
