A rare opportunity to become the proud owner of a highly regarded furniture manufacturer that has become a well-respected and preferred supplier of a wide range of Government, commercial, and private clients.

This business provides high-quality solid timber furniture to councils, education departments, health departments, national parks, holiday parks, and more! Operating for over 26 years, this business has seen very strong growth due to its solid reputation for high-quality service. With a skilled team, this business has been able to efficiently supply its diverse clientele with the best custom furniture on the market.

Located on the fast-growing New South Wales north coast, this business is run out of a large factory and showroom that has great exposure. This business has solidified itself as the most well-known custom furniture manufacturer in the region, servicing from Newcastle to Tweed Heads as well as areas such as Tamworth, Inverell & Armidale in the west. The business also boasts a strong presence in cities such as the Gold Coast, Sydney, and Brisbane. As a result of rapid development, the business has been able to take advantage of the abundance of new properties, parks, and infrastructure needed to support population growth. This means the new owner will be able to take on earnings from day one!
