PROFITABLE FRAMING BUSINESS - SOLD

Unfortunately, you have missed this one.

An exciting opportunity awaits with the sale of this well-established custom designing and manufacturing business, specialising in high-quality picture frames. With over 30 years of heritage in a central location, this business has become an integral part of the community and is now seeking a passionate new owner to continue its legacy.

Renowned for its commitment to quality and high design standards, this business has earned a stellar reputation in the industry for crafting exquisite custom picture frames. In addition to their custom-made framing services, the business offers a diverse range of art supplies and premade canvases catering to both amateur artists and professionals. This varied product range ensures multiple revenue streams and a broad customer demographic.

This owner-operated business boasts a dedicated and skilled team, ensuring the smooth running of day-to-day operations and a supportive environment for creativity to flourish. The business operates 4.5 days a week, with doors open to the public for 3 days, allowing the team to work behind closed doors for 1.5 days. This unique schedule allows focused attention on creative projects while providing exceptional service to the valued clientele.

The business features a generously sized, impeccably kept workshop with modern air conditioning, as well as a stylish showroom. Additionally, it takes advantage of a state-of-the-art POS software system, securely storing two decades' worth of client data. With a proven track record of profitability, this business provides a stable income and ample room for further financial growth.
