23200 POPULAR & LONGSTANDING COASTAL HAIR SALON – HIGH GROWTH REGION

After over a decade of award-winning services and looking after a loyal clientele, this busy and fully fitted hair salon is primed and ready for a new owner looking to step into a growing business with a proven trading history!

Renowned for high-quality cuts, colours, extensions, washes, and much more, the business offers a wide range of solutions for customers that have been visiting the premise since its first day of operation. With an abundance of 5-star reviews online and a strong social media following, the salon is easy to find when searched and is able to engage with clients actively on numerous platforms.

Strongly positioned in an expanding beachside suburb on the Mid-North Coast of New South Wales, the business has become the go-to within the local community and is highly regarded throughout the region. Offering ocean views right at the doorstep, the salon is located in a bustling coastal arcade that receives an abundance of daily foot traffic, making the well-exposed business extremely hard to miss.

Featuring luxurious modern interiors, unique branding, and eye-catching signage, the salon provides all the essentials to keep clients consistently filling the seats throughout the year. Plus, it offers ample space for smooth and efficient operations, making your work a seamless experience. With the current owner moving on to a new career path after building the salon up to its current success, now is the perfect time to cash in and take advantage of this longstanding business's existing popularity!
