35096 ESTABLISHED PROPERTY MANAGEMENT BUSINESS - HIGH DEMAND INDUSTRY

An incredible opportunity awaits to own a thriving holiday property management business on the stunning K'gari (Fraser Island), one of Australia's top tourist destinations. Specialising in bookings, cleaning, and maintenance, this established business has earned a sterling reputation for delivering exceptional service and maintaining immaculate properties that delight guests and keep them coming back year after year.

With minimal competition and consistently high demand, the business benefits from a loyal customer base and strong relationships with property owners. All bookings are personally managed, fostering trust and ensuring long-term partnerships. For those with trade or handyman skills, there's even more potential to increase revenue through additional maintenance services for other properties.

This business allows you to effortlessly manage administration duties from your own home office or whilst on the go, enabling you to manage your business alongside personal commitments or other responsibilities. A robust online presence, including active websites and social media, ensures high visibility and a steady flow of new and returning clients, with plenty of room for growth by expanding services or reaching a wider audience.

Due to personal health reasons, the current owners are unable to meet the growing demand, providing a fantastic opportunity for a motivated buyer to step in, take the reins, and unlock the full potential of this already successful business.
