35337 ESTABLISHED PROFESSIONAL SERVICES BUSINESS - DIVERSE REVENUE STREAMS

A unique opportunity is now available for those looking to enter the home and commercial services industry. This well-established business offers a comprehensive range of services, including NBN repairs and installations, intercom systems, security alarms, remote-viewing camera systems, and Wi-Fi networks ranging from single access points to expansive systems with up to 100 access points. The business also provides TV antenna services, which see a surge in demand for repairs and replacements during storm seasons, as well as the installation and maintenance of security cameras.

Located in a vibrant area, the business benefits from excellent visibility, supported by a branded mobile van. It caters to a diverse clientele, including residential properties, larger estates, and farms. Additional services include fiber optic designs and installations, as well as PA systems for venues such as clubs and hotels, demonstrating its versatility and ability to meet a wide variety of customer needs.

The current owner has built a strong reputation for reliability and high-quality work, with expertise in fault-finding and system repairs. This commitment to excellence has resulted in steady profitability and established trust within the community.

The business has cultivated long-standing relationships with body corporates, realty firms, nursing homes, and loyal residential customers. These connections offer ample potential for growth, whether by expanding into new markets or broadening the range of services provided. This is an excellent opportunity for anyone ready to step into a thriving sector with a strong foundation for future success.
