34603 MOBILE ROLLER SKATE HIRE & EVENTS BUSINESS

An exciting opportunity awaits to own a high-energy, mobile business that delivers joy and excitement to events anywhere you choose! This unique roller skate rental and events business is now for sale, offering you the flexibility to operate from virtually any location. Born on the vibrant foreshore of St Kilda Beach, it has thrived and built a solid reputation over the past 5 years.

Their strong relationship with Port Phillip Council, who nominated them for the Community-Based Initiative of the Year Award in 2020, highlights their deep roots in Victoria's capital. Currently positioned in Melbourne, the business holds the exclusive permit for roller skating activities across the entire inner-city Melbourne foreshore area, from Port Melbourne to Elwood, including the popular tourist destination of St Kilda Beach.

The business is ready to roll with marketing templates, a huge library of content and promotional assets, a well-maintained website, and active social media accounts. With numerous great Google reviews and supportive relationships with local council entities, the business enjoys a stellar reputation and smooth event planning and execution.

With five years of market experience within Queensland and Victoria, the brand showcases exceptional strength through recurring event bookings for large events. This established business is primed for expansion, including lucrative franchise opportunities in New South Wales, South Australia, and beyond. The streamlined and automated operations make it easy to roll out each event efficiently, allowing scalability without compromising quality or customer satisfaction.
