35253 HIGHLY PROFITABLE HYDRAULICS SOLUTIONS BUSINESS – 20+ YEARS

Take ownership of a long-standing hydraulic solutions business that has been keeping industries running efficiently for more than two decades! This highly regarded business is known for delivering expertly engineered solutions, premium-quality components, and complete hydraulic systems to a diverse range of industries, including manufacturing, transport, pharmaceuticals, construction, and food production.

With a strong product range catering to both local and nationwide markets, the business is widely recognised for its outstanding customer service, reliability, and technical expertise in this specialised field. At its core, this business thrives on long-standing client relationships, with repeat customers who have trusted its services for years. A focus on personal, face-to-face service has fostered strong customer loyalty, ensuring a consistent revenue stream.

Operating with an efficient "box-in, box-out" parts sales model, the business seamlessly generates repeat sales while also offering installation, maintenance, and emergency breakdown support. Additionally, it specialises in designing and manufacturing bespoke components and hydraulic systems for OEMs and niche projects, demonstrating both precision and innovation.

Strategically located in Melbourne's northern suburbs, the business operates from a fully equipped workshop with excellent accessibility to Melbourne's key industrial hubs. A well-established online presence, optimised systems and processes, and a dedicated team handling daily operations allow for a smooth and efficient workflow. Whether you're looking to take a hands-on approach to accelerate growth or prefer a more passive role, this business offers flexibility, stability, and exceptional profit potential.
